BIG TAXPAYERS URGE ARMORY IS OF VITAL NECESSITY TO CITY

In the belief that a National Guard Armory to be built along the plans approved by the War Department and at the necessary cost of $125,000 is absolutely essential to the welfare of Honolulu, the majority of the most prominent business men of the city have gone on record urging the Board of Supervisors to appropriate the money needed to insure the construction of the building.

The resolution signed by the business men was presented to the supervisors, together with a letter signed by A. J. Gignoux, president of the Merchants' Association, in which that organization is declared to favor the appropriation as one of vital interest to the community.

These, together with a letter from Adjutant General J. W. Jones of the National Guard of Hawaii setting forth the needs of the militia, resulted in the supervisors appropriating the sum of $15,000 to aid in the construction of the building.

This amount, it is stated, will permit of the erection of the structure along the approved lines, with a few minor modifications.

The ordinance as passed by the Supervisors lacks only the signature of the mayor to make this amount available.

If the bill is vetoed, Hawaii, it is stated, is likely to lose the site which has been donated by the Federal government for the purpose, or will be forced to construct a building entirely inadequate to the needs of the National Guard of the city.

The letters expressing the opinions of the business men and heavy taxpayers of the city, together with that of Adjutant General Jones, are reproduced herewith.

The communication signed by twenty-eight prominent men of Honolulu is as follows:

In view of the fact that it is deemed advisable by the War Department that the organized militia in the city of Honolulu be increased to regimental strength, and that the appropriation of $100,000 for the construction of an armory in Honolulu is inadequate to erect a building of sufficient proportions for the housing of a regiment, and that the minimum sum required for such a building is $125,000, the undersigned are of opinion that it would be proper for the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of Honolulu to appropriate $25,000 toward the construction of a National Guard Armory in Honolulu.

Following is the letter from President Gignoux of the Merchants Association:

Colonel J. W. Jones, Adjutant General, Territory of Hawaii, Honolulu.

Dear Sir: In reply to your letter of June 14, requesting an expression of opinion from the directors of the Merchants' Association as to whether or not they favor the proposed appropriation of $25,000 by the Board of Supervisors for armory purposes, I have to say that the directors of this association are unanimous in favoring the appropriation, believing that it is of vital importance to this community to have an armory with ample accommodations and a matter that needs immediate action. Yours very truly,

A. J. GIGNOUX,
President, Merchants' Association.

Adjutant General Jones stated his case as follows:

June 10, 1912.

The Mayor and Board of Supervisors, City and County of Honolulu.

Gentlemen: I have the honor to present the following:

The War Department, deeming it advisable that the organized militia in the city of Honolulu be increased to regimental strength, returned to the Territory of Hawaii, by the executive order of President Taft, a lot of sufficient proportions on which to erect a building for such purpose, said order containing the provision:

"That if the said portion of the 'Barracks Lot' is not utilized for the construction of a suitable armory within twelve months after the date of this order, . . . then this order shall become inoperative and the land shall be restored to the use of the United States."

The Territorial Legislature appropriated the sum of $100,000 for the construction of an armory in Honolulu.

Plans have been drawn by the architect appointed for that purpose, and it has been conclusively shown that the minimum sum required for a suitable armory sufficient to house a regiment is $125,000.

In view of the foregoing, if your honorable board can see its way clear to appropriate the sum of $25,000 toward the completion of the armory in Honolulu, a public necessity will be met in a way which, I believe, will meet with general public approval and be in line with the action of many communities in the States.

Enclosed please find an expression of opinion from some of the business men of Honolulu concerning the propriety of making such an appropriation. Respectfully,

J. W. JONES,
Colonel, National Guard of Hawaii, the Adjutant General.

2 MORTGAGES

gage, to meet the needs and requirements of the company.

While the bonds are payable in thirty years, the mortgagor has the right to redeem all or any portion thereof in ten years at 105, in fifteen years at 104, in twenty years at 103 and in twenty-five years at 102 per cent upon par. It is provided that there shall be expended in actual improvements, extensions or additions not less than two dollars for every one dollar of bonds issued for such purposes.

Principal and interest are made payable at the Bank of Honolulu here or at the Mercantile Trust Company in San Francisco.

This mortgage is filed in printed form, making a book of forty-three quarto pages, with a marginal index showing the subject of each paragraph. It is divided into ten articles, each with its sections numbered.

Stamps for the registry duty, amounting to $389, cover the entire depth of the margins of the first four pages. The mortgage is enclosed in a paper cover with a title page reading as follows:

"Trust Indenture—Honolulu Gas Company, Limited, to Henry Waterhouse Trust Company, and Edward I. Spalding, trustees—Securing an immediate issue of $300,000 (authorized issue $1,000,000) first mortgage five per cent thirty year gold bonds—Dated July 1, 1912—Castle & Withington, attorneys at law, Honolulu."

There was also filed on July 1 a mortgage by McBryde Sugar Company, Limited, to Hawaiian Trust Company,

SURF BATH WITH JUDGE HINDERS ASSAULT TRIAL

Hearing Ends When Shown
Witness Had Talked of Case with Jurist at Waikiki.

Five minutes' conversation between Police Judge Monsarratt and Henry Hyde-Smith, held in the surf at Waikiki two weeks ago, caused the abrupt termination of the hearing of Hyde-Smith's yard boy charged with "assault with a deadly weapon" before Judge Monsarratt yesterday morning.

The alleged assault was made June 21 and was the result of trouble between Hyde-Smith's chauffeur and his yard-boy, Imoto Hiroki, the chauffeur, had too exalted an opinion of himself, the yard-boy, Umamoto Shigeki, thought, so it is alleged, he sought to reduce Hiroki's "swelled head" with an iron bar.

During the direct examination of the defendant by Attorney Charles Chillingworth, testimony was introduced that shortly after the assault, Hyde-Smith had told Monsarratt of the trouble while both were surfing at Waikiki.

Chillingworth closed his case and refused to allow his client to testify further and Judge Monsarratt sent the case over to the Circuit Court.

PINEAPPLE SHIPMENTS ARE DOUBLED

In a few weeks the new building of the Pineapple Sales Company next to the Thomas pineapple cannery at Iwilei will be completed. A special railroad spur will be run right into the factory.

When the building is ready the extraction of the juice and manufacture of the syrup will be all done under one roof.

"The fresh fruit shipments by the company to the mainland have more than doubled over last year," said E. A. Berndt, the company's treasurer, this morning. "This great increase is due to the thorough execution of plans laid by the commission house in San Francisco. It is moreover in the face of reports from other pineapple interests alleging a demoralized condition of the market. This company does ninety per cent of the fresh pineapple shipments to the Coast."

PLANS TO TEACH PUBLIC SPEAKING

Plans for a class in public speaking are in progress of preparation at the Young Men's Christian Association and according to A. E. Larimer, who is in charge of the educational work at the institution, regular meetings of the class will be held within the next few weeks.

The class is one which has long been projected by the directors of the Association and is the result of a long succession of requests from those who are desirous of taking a practical course in public speaking. Many have sent in their names already and to all appearances the class will have to meet in two sections to accommodate all who will enroll their names.

Wilson Fritch will act as instructor and will hold a meeting in Cooke Hall next Monday evening and outline his plans for the course. At the same time, Larimer is sending out two hundred circular letters to members of the Association who have already expressed themselves as being interested and it is expected that both the letters and the meeting will result in a large number presenting their names for enrollment.

The class will be conducted under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., while a nominal fee will be charged by Mr. Fritch for membership. The one other requisite for enrollment is that the applicant be a member of the Y. M. C. A. All are invited to attend the meeting, which will be held at Cooke Hall, where Mr. Fritch will outline his plans for the course.

Trooper Roscoe City, the cavalryman who was shot in the Iwilei brawl that resulted in the fatal stabbing of Private Joseph Bostic, was put aboard the transport Sherman today for hospital treatment on the mainland. City stood the ambulance trip from the Fort Shafter hospital to the boat as well as could be expected. He is hopelessly paralyzed and his survival for so long has been a surprise to the Army surgeons.

Limited, for two million dollars to secure the payment of an issue of first mortgage five per cent twenty year gold bonds, for the redemption of the outstanding bonded indebtedness of the mortgaging company. The issue is to be divided into three series—"A" for $1,750,000 of the denomination of $1000, "B" for $200,000 of the denomination of $500 and "C" for $50,000 of the denomination of $100 each. The stamp duty on this mortgage is $5998.

MAY SAIL

chronometer has been frequently known to change its rating at sea, and without any known cause. If the chronometer was rated on shore at two seconds gain for twenty-four hours and should change the rating to a sea rating of its own accord, as sometimes happens, of say, three seconds, losing, in a run of twelve days it would make a difference of thirty seconds of time that would be "dead" to the navigator, and would throw him out a matter of forty miles to the bad in his day's work. And he would be ignorant of the trick his timer was playing on him. In thick weather, such as obtains at the present time, a vessel, slightly out of her reckoning, would not be able to pick up the land at a distance of ten miles.

It hardly seems probable that the Nattose has run into any weather that would dismast her or otherwise disable her.

Ten Years Old.

The Nattose is from Victoria, and is about 10 years old. She is yawl rigged and was formerly named Olympic. As the boat is sailing under the British charter it was necessary for it to change the name owing to the fact that there was another Olympic flying the British flag. Capt. G. P. Ashe has owned the boat four years and has made many long cruises with her, although never entering any long-distance races. Very little is known about the boat in these waters. Her length is 65 feet overall, 18-foot beam and 8 1/2-foot draught.

T. VAUGHAN NAMED
KIPLING'S ASSISTANT

T. Vaughan is to be the assistant manager of the Bijou and Empire theaters, according to an announcement made at the office of the theaters this morning. "Ted," as he is widely known, has at different times held positions as accountant, manager, or salesman, on almost every island in the group and has many friends who will be glad to hear of his choice as the assistant for Richard Kipling, the new general manager of the theaters.

Mr. Vaughan, at the beginning of the week, took a temporary position with the amusement company, to look after the theater interests until after Mr. Kipling's wedding and honeymoon, but his work has been so satisfactory that he is to be given the position permanently as assistant manager.

YOUNG "PHIL JAWN" NERY

It seems at last that Quaker has another real contender for championship honors in the ring. Young Jack O'Brien. This kid brother of Joseph F. Hagart — which fight fans know is the real name of Phil Jawn — is coming to the ring like a whirlwind.

Listen to him. "Within less than a year I will be a lightweight champion of the world. So he speaks, and he means it. This is no idle boast. And to that general well-known citizens are willing to bear witness. Number one, Lightweight Champion Ad Wolcott, wasn't right when I fought him; he would have won decisively, also. I have devastated his ability." All which is a tacit admission that he is the worst of it. Number two, Knock out Brown. "He was lucky to get out of the way of my punches; if I landed squarely, it would have been good-night." Which is a tribute to Young O'Brien's cleverness.

Philadelphia Jack is now trying watch for a longer bout, preferably ten-round in New York. Wolcott does not seem anxious to meet him again, but if he does, here's a tip: plunk your cartwheels down on the kid.

It is possible for one woman to look another on the street without seeing her, but she can't pass a milliner's window without looking in.
